

AGMKT 11

Proposed Job Description

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY, Ames, IA

Q1 Agricultural Economics

The Department of Economics seeks to fill a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level. The successful candidate will maintain or develop a strong research and teaching program in agricultural economics with an emphasis on agricultural market structure and performance. The successful candidate is expected to provide excellent teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and supervise graduate student research. Iowa State University economics faculty members are expected to develop a highly visible research program.

All candidates should email a letter of application, a curriculum vita, research papers, and evidence of teaching effectiveness (if available) to agmkt@econ.iastate.edu (pdf format preferred). In addition, applicants should send unofficial graduate transcripts and arrange to have three letters of recommendation sent electronically to the same email address. Applications must be received by 26 September 2008 to be guaranteed full consideration but will be accepted until the position is filled. Iowa State University is an equal opportunity – affirmative action employer. CONTACT: Arne Hallam, (515) 294-5861, ahallam@iastate.edu.
